SECTION 1 - REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

See Section 2.01 below regarding the amendment of a material agreement.

SECTION 2 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

ITEM 2.01 COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

On December 10, 2004, BioFarm, Inc. (the "Company") completed its previously disclosed acquisition (the "Acquisition") of all of the outstanding shares of friendlyway, Inc., a Delaware corporation, ("Friendlyway"). The Acquisition was effected pursuant to the terms of a Share Exchange Agreement dated August 13, 2004 (the "Exchange Agreement") between the Company, Friendlyway and the stockholders of Friendlyway as of the date of the Exchange Agreement. Immediately prior to the closing of the Acquisition, the Company and the stockholders of Friendlyway as of December 10, 2004 entered into a Closing Agreement pursuant to which certain terms and conditions of the Exchange Agreement were amended. The primary changes effected by the Closing Agreement were (i) making those persons who had acquired shares of Friendlyway since August 13, 2004 parties to the Exchange Agreement and (ii) waiving certain closing conditions.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 is a press release from Friendlyway announcing the closing of the transaction.

SECTION 3 - SECURITIES AND TRADING MARKETS

ITEM 3.02 UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES.

Pursuant to the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, the Company issued 18,000,000 shares of its Common Stock, $0.001 par value, to the stockholders of Friendlyway. The issuance was exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof.

Immediately after the closing of the Acquisition the Company had 23,681,095 shares of Common Stock outstanding. This number excludes 1,085,000 shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to two improperly filed Form S-8 filings which shares are not deemed to be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable because such shares were not registered for public sale, were issued without consideration and were not authorized for issuance by the Board of Directors. Under the terms of the Exchange Agreement, the Company is required to issue the Friendlyway shareholders an additional 3 shares of Common Stock for each share over 6,000,000 shares the Company had issued and outstanding (or was otherwise obligated to issue) as of the closing of the Acquisition. The Company intends to attempt to cancel the aforementioned 1,085,000 shares of Common Stock in the near future; however, it may not be able to do so. If it is unable to do so, it will be required to issue additional shares of Common Stock to the Friendlyway stockholders.

SECTION 5 - CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

ITEM 5.01 CHANGES IN CONTROL OF REGISTRANT.

Upon the closing of the Acquisition, the former stockholders of Friendlyway became the controlling stockholders of the Company as a result of their ownership of approximately 76.0 % of the outstanding shares of Common Stock the Company. In particular, Alex von Welczeck owned 8,659,999 shares of Common Stock of the Company (approximately 36.6% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock) and Friendlyway AG, a German corporation, owned 6,000,001 shares of Common Stock of the Company (approximately 25.3% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock).

As described in Item 5.02 below, upon the closing of the transaction, the Board of Directors of the Company was expanded from 3 members to 6 members and Alexander von Welczeck, Klaus Trox of Friendlyway AG, and Henry Lo were added to the Board. In addition, under the terms of the Exchange Agreement, the Company has to call a meeting of stockholders of the Company to, among other things, elect new directors and, in connection therewith, to nominate Alexander von Welczeck, one nominee of Alexander von Welczeck, Henry Lo and Klaus Trox to serve as directors of the Company. The Company anticipates that in connection with this stockholders meeting the size of the Board of Directors will be reduced to 5.

ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR PRINCIPAL OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS.

Effective as of December 10, 2004, Allan Esrine and David Stith resigned from their positions as officers of the Company, and the Board of Directors appointed Alexander von Welczeck as Chief Executive Officer and Henry Lo as Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Welczeck has approximately 18 years of sales, marketing and business development experience with multi-national companies. Mr. Welczeck oversees the strategic growth and direction of Friendlyway, Inc. and has been instrumental in the success of Friendlyway, Inc. During 2002, Mr. Welczeck orchestrated the Management Buyout of Friendlyway, Inc. from friendlyway AG. Prior to joining Friendlyway in 1998, Mr. Welczeck spent two years as Marketing Manager at Thyssen GmbH in Stuttgart, Germany. Prior to his years at Thyssen, he spent over ten years at Dover Elevators in various managerial positions in sale, marketing and business development. During his tenure at Dover, Mr. Welczeck played a key role in the acquisition of 11 companies in a rollup strategy.

Mr. Welczeck is employed by Friendlyway pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement that provides for a base of salary of $150,000 (adjusted annually for cost of living increases), a car allowance of up to $750 per month and a discretionary bonus. The employment agreement provides for successive one year terms commencing on August 1 of each year unless cancelled 60 days prior to the commencement of a term. If the Company terminates Mr. Welczeck's employment without cause, he will be entitled to receive 120% of the salary that would have due to him during the reminder of the then current term.

Mr. Lo has approximately 18 years of finance and accounting experience with publicly-traded and privately-held companies. Mr. Lo oversees all finance, accounting and administrative activities and developments for Friendlyway. In addition, his responsibilities include the effecting the Acquisition and fundraising. Prior to joining Friendlyway in 2004, Mr. Lo had served as Chief Financial Officer of Planet-Intra Software, a web-based portal software company, since its inception in 2000. During his tenure at Planet-Intra, Mr. Lo raised over $10M from first-tier venture capital firms and ultimately sold the Company in 2003. Prior to Planet Intra, he was Chief Financial Officer at Versata Software leading its Initial Public Offering in March 2000. Prior to Versata Software, he spent six years in the disk drive industry with two publicly-traded companies. He served as Treasurer and Director of Investor Relations at StorMedia Incorporated which went through its Initial Public Offering in 1995. Mr. Lo was also Chief Financial Officer at SyQuest Technology and orchestrated its sale to Iomega Corporation. Prior experience included various managerial positions at GE Capital and PriceWaterhouseCoopers. Additionally, he is a Certified Public Accountant, and is a member of the AICPA and the California Society of CPAs.

The foregoing changes to the officers and directors of the Company were made pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement.

ITEM 5.03 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR.

On December 10, 2004, the Board of Directors approved Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company which are filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1.

DECLARATION OF ALLAN ESRINE
IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Hearing Date and Time:

20 DECLARATION OF ALLAN ESRINE

21 1. I, Allan Esrine, am an adult individual.

22 2. On October 31, 1998, I became a director and officer of Biofarm, Inc. (the 23 "Company"), a Nevada Corporation with its principal place of business in Linfield, Pennsylvania. In 24 2004, after the consummation of the acquisition described in this Declaration, the Company became 25 known as friendlyway Corporation. In 2006, after the events described in this Declaration, the 26 Company took its current name, PSI Corporation, and moved its headquarters to Colorado.
27

28 DECLARATION OF ALLAN ESRINE IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

1 3. Prior to the acquisition described in this Declaration, the Company had divested itself
2 of any meaningful operations.

3 4. Friendlyway, Inc. ("FWI") was incorporated in 2000 as a privately-held, Delaware
4 corporation, located in San Francisco. FWI provided electronic self-service systems to businesses.
5 During my interactions with FWI, Alexander von Welczeck was one of its directors and its Chief
6 Executive Officer.

7 5. Originally, FWI was the wholly-owned subsidiary of friendlyway, AG ("FWAG").
8 In 2002, however, von Welczeck conducted a management buy-out of a majority of FWI's stock.
9 As a result of that transaction, as of 2003, von Welczeck owned 70% of FWI's stock, and FWAG
10 owned 30%. I understand that von Welczeck paid very little consideration to FWAG for this
11 controlling block of stock. FWAG's Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Trox, remained as one of FWI's 12 directors.

13 6. Henry Lo joined FWI in early 2004, as a director and its Chief Financial Officer.

14 7. As of at least the beginning of 2004, FWI, led by Von Welczeck and Lo sought
15 transactions that would secure access to public financing for FWI's operations. In particular, they 16 sought a "reverse merger" with a public "shell" company, where FWI would become a subsidiary of 17 the "shell," and its assets and operations would become those of the once-empty "shell."

18 8. At the time, Michael Draper, one of the Company's shareholders, and an advisor to 19 two of the Company's largest shareholders, acted as a "finder" for the Company, which was seeking 20 to acquire operations to vitalize its corporate "shell." Draper generated interest between FWI and 21 the Company and brought the Company and FWI together into acquisition discussions.

22 9. Beginning in March 2004 continuing through August 2004, the Company conducted
23 negotiations with von Welczeck and Lo and communicated with them about the proposed 24 transaction, including topics such as the terms of the deal, the current and projected financial

1 condition of FWI, the current and projected revenue of FWI, and von Welczeck's, Lo's, and
2 FWAG's intentions with respect to the Company and its stock, once they controlled the Company.

3 10. I served as the Company's principal contact during these negotiations.

4 11. Throughout the negotiations, von Welczeck and Lo, acting together and with the 5 knowledge and consent of FWAG and Draper, continually made representations of material fact,
6 designed to assuage the Company's concerns and convince the Company to consummate an
7 acquisition on terms favorable to them. Lo served as the sellers' lead spokesman, and he represented
8 me that he spoke for FWI and all of its shareholders.

10 12. In particular, on March 31, 2004, Lo represented to me that FWAG, which was a
11 more established company, was likely to merge with, acquire, or otherwise invest in FWI, once it
12 was combined with the Company.

13 13. Also on March 31, 2004, Lo represented to the Company that he and von Welczeck
14 currently believed that FWI was performing at a rate that would generate $3.5 million in total
15 revenue in 2004. In particular, according to Lo's representations, FWI's management believed that 16 FWI would generate most of its revenue and profit in the second half of 2004, including $1.5 million
17 in revenue in the fourth quarter alone. Lo stated that, by the end of 2004, FWI would be earning 18 revenue at a rate of $6 million per year. This representation was critical, for it served as the basis for 19 the $9,000,000 merger price demanded by FWAG, von Welczeck, and Lo, which Lo based on a 1.5
20 multiple of annual revenues.

22 14. On May 26, 2004, Lo represented to me that FWI had arranged for new investors to 23 further finance the Company once the merger was completed. Lo projected that, once the merger
24 occurred, the Company quickly would attain an enterprise value of $20 to $30 million.

26 15. On July 15, 2004, as part of the due diligence process, Lo sent financial statements to 27 the Company, showing FWI's financial performance and condition for year-end 2003 and the six-
28

1 month period ended June 30, 2004. He also included pro forma financial statements for the nine-
2 month period ended September 2004 and year-end December 2004. In these financial statements,
3 Lo represented that, as of June 30, 2004, FWI had earned a net profit. He also reiterated that FWI
4 would earn $3.5 million revenue by the end of the year, with an annualized revenue rate of $5
5 million. Lo further represented management's current belief that, by year-end, FWI's assets would 6 exceed its liabilities by 53%.

8 16. On July 21, 2004 Lo represented to me that FWAG, von Welczeck, and he already 9 had arranged for a additional financing for the Company, once the merger was completed, through a
10 PIPE (Private Investment in Public Equity) offering immediately after the merger. Lo also stated
11 that the "fundamentals" of FWI's business—i.e., the business that Defendants wanted the Company
12 to purchase—were "stronger than ever" and were profitable.

14 17. On August 4, 2004, Lo represented to me that he knew that, after the closing of the 15 merger, FWAG would merge with or significantly invest in the Company. Lo repeated this 16 representation to me on August 12, 2004.

17 18. On August 4, 2004, Lo represented that FWI was currently profitable, and he used
18 that representation to demand a premium price to be paid to the FWI shareholders by the Company.

20 19. Throughout these negotiations, Draper began soliciting the Company's other 21 shareholders to place pressure on me and the Company's other directors and officers to enter into 22 and consummate the proposed acquisition of FWI. I believe that Draper made representations to the 23 Company's shareholders similar to those that the sellers were making to me, concerning FWI's
24 financial condition and prospects and FWI's intentions with respect to the Company's operations
25 and stock. I believe that Draper acted in concert with the rest of the Defendants to use such 26 representations to cause the merger to occur.
27

1 20. On August 13, 2004, relying on the representations of Lo, von Welczeck, and FWAG,
2 the Company entered into a Share Exchange Agreement ("SEA") with FWAG, von Welczeck, and
3 FWI, providing for the acquisition of FWI by the Company. The SEA provided that the Company
4 would acquire all of FWI's stock from von Welczeck and FWAG, in exchange for 18,000,000 new
5 shares of the Company's stock. The 18,000,000 shares represented the $9,000,000 price that Lo,
6 von Welczeck, and FWAG had demanded, based on their representation that FWI was generating 7 revenue at a rate of $6 million per year.

9 21. In the SEA, FWI, von Welczeck, and FWAG made several additional representations
10 to the Company. In particular, in the SEA:

11 a) FWI, through von Welczeck, represented that it had delivered financial 12 statements for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 and for the six-month period ended
13 June 30, 2004, and that those financial statements accurately represented the financial condition and 14 operating results of FWI. They further represented that, between June 30, 2004 and the execution of 15 the SEA, there had not been a material adverse change in the financial condition depicted in those 16 financial statements.

18 b) FWI, through von Welczeck, represented that, between June 30, 2004 and the 19 execution of the SEA, there had not been a material change to any material agreement to which FWI 20 was bound, or the incurring of indebtedness or liability individually in excess of $25,000 or 21 aggregately in excess of $100,000.

23 c) FWAG and von Welczeck represented that they intended to acquire the 24 Company's stock for their own account and did not intend sell or distribute the Company's stock.

25 d) FWAG and von Welczeck covenanted that, between the execution of the SEA
26 and the closing, FWI's operations would continue in their ordinary course. In particular, they 27 covenanted that FWI would not incur any long-term or short-term debt securities or enter into any 28

1 extraordinary contracts. They also covenanted that FWI would continue to pay its accounts payable
2 consistent with past practice.

3 e) FWAG and von Welczeck covenanted that they and FWI would pay their own
4 expenses in connection with the merger transaction.

6 22. After the execution of the SEA, the Company continued its due diligence of FWI and 7 communications with its shareholders, directors, and officers. FWAG, von Welczeck, and Lo, again
8 with Lo acting as the sellers' primary spokesperson, continued to make representations designed to 9 induce the Company to consummate the acquisition transactions.

10 23. On August 20, 2004, FWAG, through Mr. Trox and Lo, represented that it intended
11 to merge into the Company, once it acquired FWI.

12 24. On August 30, 2004, with one month remaining in FWI's third quarter, Lo
13 represented to the Company that "[w]e are on pace to generate revenue in excess of $1 million for 14 Q3, which will be another record performance for friendlyway." Lo claimed that, "upon closing,"
15 "we will have on file quarterly financial statements that will not only reflect strong revenue growth, 16 but profitability."

18 25. On October 7, 2004, Defendants represented to me that, for the nine-month period
19 ended September 30, 2004, FWI had earned an operating profit, a positive net income, and 20 $2,019,300 in revenue. They also represented that, during the third quarter, it had "strengthened [its]
21 balance sheet." The sellers also represented that, for this nine-month period, FWI had incurred
22 operating expenses of $730,425. They also projected an additional $1.1 to $1.3 million in revenue
23 for the fourth quarter of 2004 and expressed their expectation that FWI would continue to operate
24 profitably for the remainder of 2004.

26 26. Between the execution of the SEA and the closing, the Company sought additional 27 agreement and assurance from von Welczeck, Lo, and FWAG that, in their zeal to arrange additional 28

1 financing for the combined entity after the merger, they would not sell the Company's stock below a
2 certain price. The Company sought these assurances to protect the original investment of its current
3 shareholders. On November 16, 2004, FWI, through Lo, agreed with the Company that it would not
4 issue or otherwise distribute the Company's stock unless the stock had been trading for at least 30
5 days at a price equal to or higher than 75 cents per share and would not do so for less than 50 cents
6 per share.

8 27. As I later discovered, during this same time period, Draper and the sellers caused
9 FWI to issue FWI stock to a company controlled by Draper, called Derma Plus, Inc. ("Derma Plus"),
10 effective as of June 15, 2004 (i.e., before the execution of the SEA). Then, Draper, now a FWI
11 shareholder as well as FWI's "finder," contacted the Company's existing shareholders and solicited
12 about 60% of them to authorize the proposed acquisition. Draper then caused those shareholders to 13 present that controlling authorization to the Company's directors and officers and to demand that the 14 Company consummate the deal. I believe that Draper, with the contributions of von Welczeck, Lo, 15 and FWAG, secured this shareholder authorization by repeating the representations made to the 16 Company, including, but not limited to, their representations that FWI was currently profitable.
17 Draper himself repeatedly contacted me, represented that he spoke for a majority of the Company's 18 shareholders, and demanded that the Company acquire FWI's stock (some of which he now owned).
19 Draper even threatened to bring suit against me if I did not heed his wishes.

22 28. On December 10, 2004, relying on the representations I have described above, the 23 Company and FWI entered into a Closing Agreement, consummating the merger transaction.

24 29. The Closing Agreement recognized that, after the execution of the SEA, FWI had 25 issued stock to the following additional shareholders: Lo; Derma Plus; Karl Johannsmeier, a FWAG
26 shareholder; and Pacific Capsource, Inc. The Closing Agreement provided that, accordingly, these 27 new FWI shareholders would exchange their FWI stock for the Company's stock in the merger
28

1 transaction. The Closing Agreement amended the SEA to include these new shareholders as selling
2 FWI shareholders and to impose the same obligations upon them as imposed by the SEA upon von
3 Welczeck and FWAG.

4 30. In connection with the December 10, 2004 closing, von Welczeck and Lo, as officers
5 of FWI, certified in writing to the Company that the representations, warranties, and covenants in the 6 SEA concerning FWI remained true as of the date of the closing.

8 31. In connection with the December 10, 2004 closing, FWAG, Lo, von Welczeck, and 9 Draper (acting on behalf of Derma Plus, Inc.), certified in writing to the Company that their 10 representations and warranties in the SEA as FWI shareholders, including those regarding their 11 intent to sell the Company's stock, remained true as of the date of the closing.

13 32. The Company's board also relied on these representations made in connection with 14 the closing in causing the Company to enter into the Closing Agreement and consummating the 15 acquisition transaction.

16 33. As provided in the SEA, after the closing, the Company issued 18,000,000 shares of 17 restricted common stock, valued at $9,000,000, to the shareholders of FWI, in exchange for all of the 18 outstanding shares of FWI. Von Welczeck received 8,659,999 shares. FWAG received 6,000,001
19 shares. Lo received 900,000 shares. Derma Plus received 340,000 shares. Pacific Capsource, Inc.
20 received 1,100,000 shares. Mr. Johannsmeier received 1,000,000 shares.

22 34. The financial statements delivered to me by Defendants did not accurately depict the 23 liabilities of FWI. As of the time the Company acquired FWI, Defendants had caused FWI to incur
24 substantial liabilities that were never disclosed to the Company. For example, Defendants
25 deliberately concealed the fact that they had not paid for the services of FWI's own merger counsel,
26 and they deceitfully delivered FWI to the Company encumbered by that liability. For the same
27 reason, Defendants' repeated representations to the Company that, between June 30, 2004 and the

2 than $100,000 in total liability, would operate FWI as usual, and would continue to pay its accounts
3 payable, were false.

4 35. After the closing, Von Welzeck became the Company's new CEO, and Lo became 5 the Company's new CFO. I resigned as an officer of the company. In June 2005, Defendants took 6 control of the Company's board of directors.

7 36. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 8 June 4, 2007.

SHARE EXCHANGE AGREEMENT

This Share Exchange Agreement (this "Agreement") is made effective as of August 13, 2004, by and among Biofarm, Inc., a Nevada Corporation ("BIOF"), and friendlway, Inc. a Delaware corporation ("FWAY"), and its two stockholders, friendlyway AG, a German corporation, and Alexander von Welczeck (together, the "FWAY Stockholders").

RECITALS

A. The Boards of Directors of each of the BIOF and FWAY believe it is in the best interests of each company and their respective stockholders that BIOF acquire FWAY through the acquisition of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of FWAY from the FWAY Stockholders (the "Acquisition") and, in furtherance thereof, have approved the Acquisition.

B. Pursuant to the Acquisition, the FWAY Stockholders, who in the aggregate own all of the outstanding shares of FWAY Common Stock ("FWAY Common"), shall exchange the shares of FWAY Common held by them for newly-issued shares of BIOF Common Stock ("BIOF Common").

C. On the Closing Date, BIOF shall have either liquidated or otherwise provided for the elimination of 100% of the current liabilities of BIOF and shall have transferred all of its assets to a wholly-owned subsidiary, Ocwen, a Nevada corporation ("Ocwen"), the shares of capital stock of which shall have been transferred, as a dividend on the pre-Acquisition outstanding BIOF Common, to a trustee to hold for the benefit of the pre-Acquisition holders of the BIOF Common (the "Spin-Off").

D. In connection with the Acquisition, BIOF desires to make certain representations and warranties to FWAY and the FWAY Stockholders, and each of FWAY and the two FWAY Stockholders desire to make certain representations to BIOF.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, promises and representations set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, intending to be legally bound hereby the parties agree as follows:

SECTION 1

The Acquisition.

1.1 Share Exchange. Subject to the terms and conditions herein stated, on the Closing Date each FWAY Stockholder shall exchange, assign, transfer and deliver to BIOF and BIOF shall acquire such FWAY Stockholder's FWAY Common in exchange for the issuance by BIOF of an aggregate of 18,000,000 shares of BIOF Common (the "Acquisition Consideration") to the FWAY Stockholders. The number of shares of FWAY Common to be exchanged by each FWAY

Stockholder and the number of shares of BIOF Common to be received by each FWAY Stockholder pursuant to this Agreement is set forth on EXHIBIT A.

1.2 Assumption of Options. At the Closing Date, all options to purchase FWAY Common then outstanding under FWAY's 2003 Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plan") shall be assumed by BIOF in accordance with provisions described below.

(a) Each such option shall continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions set forth in the Option Plan and/or as provided in the respective option agreements governing such immediately prior to the Closing Date, except that (A) such option shall be exercisable for that number of whole shares of BIOF Common equal to the product of the number of shares of FWAY Common Stock that were issuable upon exercise of such option immediately prior to the Closing Date multiplied by quotient of (x) the number of shares of BIOF Common constituting the Acquisition Consideration divided by (y) the number of shares of FWAY Common to be exchanged by the FWAY Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement, rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of BIOF Common and (B) the per share exercise price for the shares of BIOF Common issuable upon exercise of such assumed option shall be equal to the quotient determined by dividing the exercise price per share of FWAY Common at which such option was exercisable immediately prior to the Closing Date by the quotient described in clause (A), rounded up to the nearest whole cent.

(b) It is the intention of the parties that the options assumed by BIOF qualify following the Closing Date as incentive stock options as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code to the extent such options qualified as incentive stock options immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Promptly following the Closing Date, BIOF will issue to each holder of an assumed option a document evidencing the foregoing assumption of such option by BIOF.

1.3 Antidilution Provision. In the event BIOF changes (or establishes a record date that occurs before the Closing Date for changing) the number of shares of BIOF Common issued and outstanding before the Closing Date as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, subdivision, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding shares as of the Closing Date, the Acquisition Consideration shall be proportionately adjusted, as applicable, to reflect such stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, subdivision, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction. In addition, in the event BIOF pays (or establishes a record date that occurs before the Closing Date for payment of) an extraordinary dividend on, or makes any other extraordinary distribution in respect of, BIOF Common, the Acquisition Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such dividend or distribution.

1.4 Reorganization for Tax Purposes. The parties intend to adopt this Agreement as a "Plan of Reorganization" and to consummate the Acquisition in accordance with the provisions of Section 368(a)(1)(B) of the Code.

FWAY has not received any written communication alleging that FWAY has violated or, by conducting its business as currently conducted, would violate any of the Intellectual Property of any other person or entity.

(b) To the knowledge of FWAY, none of its employees is obligated under any contract or other agreement, or subject to any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative agency, that would materially interfere with the use of his or her efforts to promote the interests of FWAY or that would conflict with FWAY's business as presently conducted. Neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement, nor the carrying on of FWAY's business by the employees of FWAY, nor the conduct of FWAY's business as presently conducted, will, to FWAY's knowledge, conflict with or result in a breach of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, any contract, covenant or instrument under which any of such employees is now obligated.

3.8 Material Contracts. Schedule 3.8 lists all agreements, understandings, instruments, contracts, proposed transactions, to which FWAY is a party or by which it is bound which involve (i) obligations of, or payments to, FWAY in excess of $25,000 (other than obligations of, or payments to, FWAY arising from purchase or sale agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business), (ii) any license or transfer of Intellectual Property to or from FWAY other than agreements with its own employees or consultants, standard end-user license agreements, support/maintenance agreements and agreements entered into in the ordinary course of FWAY's business, (iii) the grant of rights to manufacture, produce, assemble, license, market or sell FWAY's products or limitations on FWAY's exclusive right to develop, manufacture, assemble, distribute, market or sell its products (each such contract, a "FWAY Material Contract", collectively the "FWAY Material Contracts"). To FWAY's knowledge, all of the FWAY Material Contracts are valid, binding and in full force and effect in all material respects, subject to laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors and rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies and to general principles of equity. Neither FWAY nor, to FWAY's knowledge, is any other party to the FWAY Material Contracts in material default under any of such FWAY Material Contracts. For the purposes of this section, all indebtedness, liabilities, agreements, understandings, instruments, contracts and proposed transactions involving the same person or entity (including persons or entities FWAY has reason to believe are affiliated therewith) shall be aggregated for the purpose of meeting the individual minimum dollar amounts of this section.

3.9 Title to Properties and Assets; Liens. FWAY has good and marketable title to its properties and assets, and has good title to all its leasehold interests, in each case subject to no material mortgage, pledge, lien, lease, encumbrance or charge, other than (i) liens for current taxes not yet due and payable, (ii) liens imposed by law and incurred in the ordinary course of business for obligations not past due, (iii) liens in respect of pledges or deposits under workers' compensation laws or similar legislation, and (iv) liens, encumbrances and defects in title which do not in any case materially detract from the value of the property subject thereto or have a Material Adverse Effect, and which have not arisen otherwise than in the ordinary course of business. With respect to the property and assets it leases, FWAY is in compliance with such leases in all material respects and, to its knowledge, holds a valid leasehold interest free of any liens, claims or encumbrances, subject to clauses (i)-(iv) above. To FWAY's knowledge, FWAY is not in violation of any federal or state statute, rule or regulation applicable to FWAY the violation of which would have a Material Adverse Effect. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by FWAY and the FWAY Stockholders and the performance by FWAY of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement will not result in any violation of, or conflict with, or constitute a material default under, FWAY's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, each as amended to date, or any of its Material Contracts, nor, to FWAY's or the knowledge of the FWAY stockholders, result in the creation of any material mortgage, pledge, lien, encumbrance or charge upon any of the properties or assets of FWAY.

3.11 Litigation. There are no actions, suits, proceedings or investigations pending against FWAY or its properties (nor has FWAY received written notice of any threat thereof) before any court or governmental agency. FWAY is not a party or subject to the provisions of any order, writ, injunction, judgment or decree of any court or government agency or instrumentality.

3.12 Governmental Consent; Third Party Approvals.

(a) No consent, approval or authorization of or designation, declaration or filing with any governmental authority on the part of FWAY is required in connection with the valid execution and delivery of this Agreement, or the consummation of any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) No consent, approval or authorization of any third party is required in connection with the consummation by FWAY of the transactions contemplated hereunder.

3.13 Permits. FWAY has all franchises, permits, licenses, and any similar authority necessary for the conduct of its business as now being conducted by it, the lack of which would have a Material Adverse Effect, and believes it can obtain, without undue burden or expense, any similar authority for the conduct of its business as presently planned to be conducted. FWAY is not in default in any material respect under any of such franchises, permits, licenses or other similar authority

3.14 Registration and Voting Rights. FWAY is presently not under any obligation and has not granted any rights to register under the Securities Act any of its presently outstanding securities or any of its securities that may hereafter be issued. To FWAY's knowledge, no stockholder of FWAY has entered into any agreements with respect to the voting of capital shares of FWAY.

3.15 Brokers or Finders. Schedule 3.15 describes any liability of FWAY for brokerage or finders' fees or agents' commissions or any similar charges in connection with this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.16 Tax Returns and Payments. FWAY has timely filed all tax returns required to be filed by it with appropriate federal, state and local governmental agencies. These returns and reports are true and correct in all material respects. All taxes shown to be due and payable on such returns, any assessments imposed, and, to FWAY's knowledge, all other taxes due and payable by FWAY on or before the Closing have been paid or will be paid prior to the time they become delinquent. FWAY has not been advised in writing (i) that any of its returns have been or are being audited as of the date hereof, or (ii) of any deficiency in assessment or proposed judgment with respect to its federal, state or local taxes

FWAY is not aware that any officer or key employee intends to terminate his employment with FWAY, nor does FWAY have a present intention to terminate the employment of any officer or key employee. Subject to general principles related to wrongful termination of employees, the employment of each officer and employee of FWAY is terminable at the will of FWAY.

3.18 Employee Benefit Plans. FWAY is in substantial compliance with its "employee benefit plans" as defined in the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

3.19 Obligations to Related Parties. No employee, officer, or director or member of his or her immediate family is indebted to FWAY, nor is FWAY indebted (or committed to make loans or extend or guarantee credit) to any of them other than (i) for payment of salary for services rendered, (ii) reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of FWAY and (iii) for other standard employee benefits made generally available to all employees (including stock option agreements outstanding under any stock option plan approved by FWAY's Board of Directors and stock purchase agreements approved by FWAY's Board of Directors). To FWAY's knowledge, none of its officers, directors or employees has any direct or indirect ownership interest in any firm or corporation with which FWAY is affiliated or with which FWAY has a business relationship, or any firm or corporation that competes with FWAY, except in connection with the ownership of stock in publicly-traded companies. To FWAY's knowledge, no employee, officer or director nor any member of their immediate families, is, directly or indirectly, interested in any FWAY Material Contract.

3.20 Environmental and Safety Laws. To its knowledge, FWAY is not in violation of any applicable statute, law, or regulation relating to the environment or occupational health and safety, and to its knowledge, no material expenditures are or will be required in order to comply with any such existing statute, law, or regulation.

3.21 Corporate Documents. The Restated Certificate and Bylaws of FWAY are in the form provided to counsel for BIOF. The copy of the minute books of FWAY provided to BIOF's counsel contains complete and correct minutes of all meetings of directors and stockholders and all actions by written consent without a meeting by the directors and stockholders since the date of incorporation and accurately reflects all actions by the directors (and any committee of directors) and stockholders with respect to all transactions referred to in such minutes.

5.2 Subsidiaries. BIOF does not own or control, directly or indirectly, any interest in any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association or other business entity, other than its ownership of Ocwen.

5.3 Capitalization.

BIOF has supplied to FWAY's counsel all comment letters received by the Company from the staff of the SEC since January 1, 2002 and all responses to such comment letters by or on behalf of BIOF. The BIOF SEC reports were prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended) (the "Exchange Act"), as applicable, and the rules and regulations thereunder, and did not at the time they were filed with the SEC contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. To the knowledge of BIOF, each director and executive officer of BIOF has filed with the SEC on a timely basis all statements required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder since January 1, 2002. As used in this Section 5.5, the term "file" shall be broadly construed to include any manner in which a document or information is furnished, supplied or otherwise made available to the SEC.

5.6 Financial Statements.

(a) by written consent of BIOF, FWAY and the FWAY Stockholders;

(b) by either FWAY or BIOF on written notice to the others if (i) any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or other United States federal or state governmental entity shall have issued a final order, decree or ruling, or taken any other final action, restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Acquisition and such order, decree, ruling or other action is or shall have become non-appealable, or (ii) the Acquisition has not been consummated by September 30, 2004; provided that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (ii) if such party's failure to fulfill any of its obligations under this Agreement shall have been a principal reason that the Closing Date shall not have occurred on or before said date;

(c) by BIOF on written notice to FWAY if (i) there shall have been a material breach of any representations or warranties on the part of FWAY or the FWAY Stockholders set forth in this Agreement or if any representations or warranties of FWAY or the FWAY Stockholders shall have become untrue in any material respect and such breach is not cured within 10 business days after notice by BIOF thereof, provided that BIOF has not breached any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect; or (ii) there shall have been a breach by FWAY or the FWAY Stockholders of any of their respective covenants or agreements hereunder in any material respect or materially adversely affecting (or materially delaying) the ability of the parties to consummate the Acquisition, and such breach has not been cured within ten business after notice by BIOF thereof, provided that BIOF has not breached any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect; or

(d) by FWAY or by the FWAY Stockholders on written notice to BIOF if (i) there shall have been a material breach of any representations or warranties on the part of BIOF set forth in this Agreement or if any representations or warranties of BIOF shall have become untrue in any material respect and such breach is not cured within 10 business days after notice by FWAY thereof, provided that FWAY has not breached any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect; or (ii) there shall have been a breach by BIOF of any of its covenants or agreements hereunder in any material respect or materially adversely affecting (or materially delaying) the ability of the parties to consummate the Acquisition, and such breach has not been cured within ten business after notice by FWAY thereof, provided that FWAY has not breached any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect.

9.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement or abandonment of the Acquisition pursuant to Section 9.1 above, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect and there shall be no liability on the part of any party hereto or its Affiliates, directors, officers or stockholders; provided that if this Agreement is terminated by BIOF pursuant to Section 9.1(c) or by FWAY pursuant to Section 9.1(d) then the terminating party shall retain all rights to seek damages or other relief from the breaching party for any losses arising from or related to such party's breach; and provided further that Section 10 shall continue in full force and effect.

Special Remedies

10.1 Rescission. If the representations and warranties of BIOF are not true and correct and such failure or failures taken together have a Material Adverse Effect on BIOF and its subsidiaries taken as a whole then the FWAY Stockholders shall have a right of rescission with respect to this transaction. Such right may be exercised by the FWAY Stockholders delivering to BIOF a signed written notice (the "Rescission Notice") stating (i) the breaches of the BIOF representations and warranties which constitute a material adverse effect and (ii) the date (the "Rescission Closing") on which the closing of the rescission shall take place, which date shall be no less than 14 days and no more than 30 days after the date of the Rescission Notice. To the extent that any assets of FWAY have been transferred to BIOF or a subsidiary or affiliate of BIOF after the Closing without the transfer to FWAY of assets or services of equivalent value, such assets (or the monetary equivalent thereof) shall be transferred back to FWAY at the Rescission Closing. At the Rescission Closing, BIOF shall deliver to the FWAY Stockholders (in the same proportion as their current ownership of FWAY) duly endorsed share certificates representing all of the issued and outstanding shares of FWAY (including any options, warrants or other rights with respect to FWAY), which shares shall be free and clear of all liens or encumbrances. At the Rescission Closing, each of the FWAY Stockholders shall deliver to BIOF duly endorsed share certificates representing the number of shares of BIOF Common issued to such FWAY Stockholder pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (as appropriately adjusted for stock splits, stock dividends, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations and similar events). The foregoing right of rescission shall expire, if not exercised, at the end of the survival of BIOF's representations and warranties.

10.2 Adjustment of Share Issuances. If at any time, and from time to time, after the Closing, the sum of (i) the number of shares of BIOF Common issued and outstanding as of the Closing (including the number of S-8 Shares, if any, that are subsequent to the Closing determined to have been issued and outstanding as of the Closing), (ii) the number of shares of BIOF Common issued with respect to any claims relating to the cancellation of the S-8 Shares, (iii) the number of shares of BIOF Common issued in connection with the Artwork Obligation after the Closing, and (iv) the number of shares of BIOF Common issued with respect to any claims arising out of events or circumstances occurring prior to the Closing which are issued subsequent to the Closing (such sum the "Adjusted Capitalization"), exceeds 6,000,000 (as appropriately adjusted for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalizations and like events) then BIOF shall, as soon as practicable, issue to the FWAY Stockholders (in the same proportions as the Acquisition Consideration was issued to them) such additional number of shares of BIOF Common such that the total number of shares of BIOF Common issued to the FWAY Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement equals three (3) times the Adjusted Capitalization. Such shares shall be deemed to be additional shares of Acquisition Consideration and an adjustment to the acquisition price.

11.5 Survival. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made in this Agreement shall survive any investigation made by any party hereto and the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby for two years from the date of the Closing Date.

11.6 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement, and any and all rights, duties and obligations hereunder, shall not be assigned, transferred, delegated or sublicensed by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties. No party shall be liable or bound to any other party in any manner with regard to the subjects hereof or thereof by any warranties, representations or covenants except as specifically set forth herein or therein.

11.8 Delays or Omissions. Except as expressly provided herein, no delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party to this Agreement upon any breach or default of any other party under this Agreement shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such non-defaulting party, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring, nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party of any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing. All remedies, either under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the remedies described in Section 10) or by law or otherwise afforded to any party to this Agreement, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

11.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unenforceable or void, portions of such provision, or such provision in its entirety, to the extent necessary, shall be severed from this Agreement, and such court will replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the same economic, business and other purposes of the illegal, void or unenforceable provision. The balance of this Agreement shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

11.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be enforceable against the parties actually executing such counterparts, and all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

At the request of any party hereto, all parties hereto agree to execute and deliver an original of this Agreement as well as any facsimile, telecopy or other reproduction hereof.

11.12 Jurisdiction; Venue. With respect to any disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement, the parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of, and venue in, the state courts in San Francisco County in the State of California (or in the event of exclusive federal jurisdiction, the courts of the Northern District of California).

11.13 Construction. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed in favor of or against any party on the ground that such party or its counsel drafted the provision. Any remedies provided for herein are not exclusive of any other lawful remedies which may be available to either party, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. This Agreement shall at all times be construed so as to carry out the purposes stated herein. Time shall be of the essence.

11.14 Attorney's Fees. In the event that any suit or action is instituted to enforce any provisions in this Agreement, the prevailing party in such dispute shall be entitled to recover from the losing party all fees, costs and expenses of enforcing any right of such prevailing party under or with respect to this Agreement, including without limitation all fees, costs and expenses of appeals.
